

THIS IS
LA VOIX DU

Canada

CANADIAN BROADCASTING CORPORATION
INTERNATIONAL SERVICE BOX 7,000, MONTREAL, CANADA

B. Copedo,
Waitakere,
Auckland,
New Zealand.

Dinny Pails of the 1947 Australian Davis Cup team, during an interview with CBC announcer Tim Crow at Forest Hills, New York. The interview was broadcast in Canada's shortwave service to Australia and New Zealand, which is directed by Neville Friedlander.

B. Copedo,
Waitakers,
Auckland,
New Zealand.

A-12

C.B.C. INTERNATIONAL SERVICE
BOX 7,000, MONTREAL, CANADA

SUMMER TIME LISTENING

We beg to remind you that from the 16th of March, when G.M.T. is advanced by one hour, you will hear our transmissions one hour later than the times given in the THIS IS CANADA schedule for March. The programme arrangement will remain unchanged until the 13th of April, when the second hour of daylight saving comes into force in Great Britain.

We will send you another postcard giving you the new transmission times and programme arrangement, covering the period from the 13th of April until the 4th of May, by which time we trust you will have received your copy of THIS IS CANADA, resuming the usual monthly series.

Yours very truly,

The International Service of the

CKNC: 16.84 M. or 17.82 mc/s.

CKCS: 19.58 M. or 15.32 mc/s.

THIS

IS Canada

Canadian Broadcasting Corporation International Service

The Voice of Canada may be heard every Sunday by shortwave listeners in Australia, New Zealand and the South Pacific.

Times

0845 to 1000 hours Greenwich Mean Time
6.45 to 8 p.m. in Eastern Australia
8.45 to 10 p.m. in New Zealand

Frequencies

Station CHOL 25.60 meters or 11.72 megacycles per second
Station CHLS 31.22 meters or 9.61 megacycles per second

(Listeners will be advised on the air or by mail of any changes in frequency.)

Programs

All programs are produced by the Australian, New Zealand and South Pacific Unit of the CBC International Service. They are designed to tell listeners about Canadian life and to present an up-to-the-minute picture of happenings in Canada.

Regular Features

Canadian Chronicle — Pacific Edition: A weekly roundup of events in Canada told by eye-witness reporters in all parts of the country.

News: Canadian and international.

Sunday Evening Concert: Popular and classical music by Canadian and international artists.

This service by Canada's publicly-owned shortwave broadcasting organization was inaugurated in July, 1947. All programs are produced in Montreal and beamed from the CBC's 50,000-watt transmitters at Sackville, New Brunswick, near the Atlantic Coast.

For further information

Write to: CBC International Service,
Post Office Box 7,000,
MONTREAL, Canada.

